

California Council for the Social Studies
proudly presents
Administrators' Colloquium and Awards Breakfast

Friday, February 28, 2020
7:30 a.m. – 8:45 a.m.

Orange County Costa Mesa Hilton
Bristol 3 Room
3050 Bristol St.
Costa Mesa, California, 92626

School and District Administrators, as well as History-Social Science leaders, are invited to attend the California Council for the Social Studies Administrators' Colloquium and Awards Breakfast to network with colleagues and gain insights from experts on how to support proper implementation of the FAIR Act in their schools and districts.

Featured Speaker: Rob Darrow, Ed.D.

Rob Darrow consults with educational organizations, such as Our Family Coalition, on LGBT history and on safe and inclusive schools and remains active with the state-wide CLIC Project supporting the proper implementation of the 2016 History-Social Science Framework. Dr. Darrow will share insights into how educational leaders can ensure compliance with the Fair, Accurate, Inclusive, and Respectful (FAIR) Act.

Presentation of the Diane L. Brooks Administrative Award to:

Jeff Hittenberger, Ph.D.
Chief Academic Officer, Orange County Department of Education

Please REGISTER by February 21st: <https://casocialstudies.org/event-3672207>

Event Cost: $15 per participant