California Council for the Social Studies Conference
February 24 - 26, 2023
Santa Clara, CA

SEEKING GREAT PARTNERS

The California Council for the Social Studies invites you to submit a proposal to present at our annual conference.

The CCSS Annual Conference is the largest gathering of K-12 social studies classroom teachers, college and university faculty members, curriculum designers and specialists, district and state social studies supervisors, and social studies discipline leaders in the state of California.

OUR VISION / MISSION

California Council for the Social Studies (CCSS) is a non-profit professional organization serving both public and private school educators. We represent the leading voice for quality social studies education in California, committed to strengthening the teaching and learning of history-social studies through standards-based professional development, resource sharing, and public awareness and advocacy through strategic partnerships at the local, state and national levels.

We want our students to understand the value and fragility of our democracy, develop a keen sense of ethics and citizenship, and care deeply about the quality of life in their communities, nation, and world.

SEEKING GREAT PARTNERS

The California Council for the Social Studies is thrilled to announce the 2023 Annual Conference scheduled for February 24 - 26, 2023 at the Marriott in Santa Clara, CA.

This theme, purposely selected to inspire social studies educators, curriculum writers, college faculty, and professional organizations, launches us into a new era! A collective weekend to rededicate our work to the preparation of young people for engaged citizenship valuing equity, equality, and human rights.

Join over 1,000 social studies educators, school administrators, professional development providers, and publishers from across California for the CCSS 61st Annual Conference.
